Pension Plan Negotiations In Stalemate

Johnson Bronze
Negotiations Off
Until June 20

Negotiations between the United Automobile Workers and the management of the Johnson Bronze Company have broken off until Tuesday, June 20.

The negotiations center about a pension and welfare plan for the employees of the company and negotiations have been under way for some time. Present at recent meetings have been Pennsylvania Labor Mediator Troy C. Burns, UAW Representatives Patrick O'Malley and Peter A. Costello along with members of the executive committee and for the company, President J. Preston Flaherty and other officials.

Almost Stalemated
Information from reliable sources is that the negotiations have reached a stalemate over the question of funding a pension plan. In the meantime a strike vote was taken last Sunday by employees and out of approximately 625 present it is said over 400 voted for a strike on June 25.

The union has demanded a pension and welfare plan. In this there is no disagreement between the company and the union. The company has offered a pension of $100 per month, including social security, to employees reaching 65 years of age who have thirty years of service.

The company has offered a welfare plan which includes sick and accident benefits, hospitalization benefits and payment of a fee for surgical work. The expense of the pension and welfare plans would be borne entirely by the company.

Funding Plan
According to employees who are familiar with the negotiations the rock upon which the negotiations seem to be breaking is that of funding.

The UAW insists upon funding the entire pension plan over a thirty year period, in other words, insists the company must pay all contributions for past service over a thirty year period.

The company has offered to fund the plan in the same manner as Big Steel, that is on a "pay-as-you-go" basis. This would mean that as each employee reaches retirement age, the company would fund his account by paying into an insurance fund or to a trustee the contributions representing his back service. In all cases the company would pay the current premiums for the pension plan, the employees paying none at all.

Apparently it is upon this funding process that the negotiations have stuck. It is said that the union officials are insisting upon their position and the company argues that it cannot afford, at the present time, to fund any but current retirements.

In the meantime there has been considerable disagreement among the employees as to the strike vote meeting held last Sunday in the Benjamin Franklin Junior high school.

Proponents of the union claim it was held under the law of the union. Other employees say the meeting was called for a "vote of confidence" that is to decide whether to strike.

British Stand May Cause Marshall Plan Funds Cut

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(INS)—Senate Appropriations Committee members foresee today a possible cut in Marshall Plan funds as a result of the British Labor party's rejection of European unity proposals.

Sen. McCarran (D) Nev., said the stand of the Labor party will have "far-reaching effects" brings my amendment for a 450 million dollar cut close to the bull's eye of a favorable vote.

Sen. Knowland (R) Calif., said the British action would be "a factor" in considering a reduction in Marshall Plan aid. Congress has authorized $2,700,000,000 in new money for the European Recovery Program.

Charge Soviet Move Only To Sow Confusion

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(INS)—The United States charged today that the Soviet government's demand that the western powers withdraw from Trieste "was obviously designed to sow confusion."

Similar notes also were delivered in Moscow by Britain and France. The Russian demand was contained in a note sent to Washington, London and Paris on May 20. It came shortly after the U.S. suggested that Trieste be returned to Italy.

The Soviet Union more recently proposed that settlement of an Austrian peace treaty wait until the Trieste issue is settled.

The U.S. note declared: "The United States Government rejects categorically the allegation that the United States, the United Kingdom and France have violated the treaty of peace with Italy in respect to Trieste."

The U.S. charged that the Soviet Union must bear the full responsibility for not settling the Trieste question as provided in the Italian treaty. It asserted that it is the Soviet Union's conduct which made the settlement "impossible of execution."

The American note said that the administration of the Allied zones of Trieste is being conducted under obligations assumed by the U.S. and Britain under the treaty and includes only small military forces.

Bus Drivers Strike At Aliquippa

ALIQUIPPA, Pa., June 16.—(INS)—A strike by 42 drivers of the Woodlawn & Southern Motor Coach Company serving the Aliquippa area today raised the number of struck Pittsburgh district bus lines to seven.

Heavy Haze Over Pacific Is Gone

HONOLULU, June 16.—(INS)—A spanking breeze, a warming sun and bright blue skies today replaced the thick, million-square-mile mist that hovered over the Pacific from Hawaii to Wake Island for four days.

Though the haze is gone, the mystery of its source lingers on. Otherwise, however, life returned to normal and Hawaii Tourist Bureau once again began to talk of the "sunny isles of paradise." The Coast Guard, too, was relieved. It reported that a vessel lost in the dense atmospheric cloud had been found safe.

College Manse Construction Is Being Started

Westminster college has begun construction of a $44,000 president's manse and is expected to begin excavation for two other structures in the immediate future.

The manse is expected to be completed and ready for occupancy by January 1. Excavation and grading contracts for a new men's dormitory and a field house are expected to be awarded soon.

The manse will be a two-story structure of brick and English stucco. It will be located on college property near the city limits of New Wilmington across from The Overlook.

With the construction of the manse, the home occupied by President and Mrs. Will W. Orr will become the official residence of the new college dean, Dr. William Vander Lugt, who is expected to arrive on the campus soon from Pella, Iowa.

The manse will contain a living room-dining room, library and kitchen on the first floor, four bedrooms and two baths on the second floor, and a recreation room and a maid's room in the basement.

The architect for the structure is L. H. Thayer & Co., New Castle. Vic Minter of New Wilmington is contracting the job.

Army Worms Are Being Found In Lawrence County

While the infestations here are not of serious proportions as yet, army worms, which have been found in other sections of the state and in West Virginia, have been discovered in the eastern part of the county, according to reports made to the Lawrence County Agricultural Extension Association.

These pests, which can cause a tremendous amount of damage, where they appear in large numbers, keep on the move, creeping ahead like an army, devouring all vegetation in their path.

Corn fields in the eastern part of the county have been found to be infested. Farmers are urged by L. C. Dayton, county agent, to keep a close watch on their fields and pastures, and to report any infestations found to the Agricultural Extension office.

They can be controlled by use of chlordane, but this material should not be used in pastures, or in hayfields where the hay is to be cut in the near future, Mr. Dayton states.

American Is Retaken After Third German Prison Break

MUNICH, June 16.—(INS)—Homer Cook, so-called Oklahoma "Bad Man" dubbed a modern "Houdini" after his third escape from prison in Germany, was recaptured today in the rented room of the girl friend with whom he says he is "madly in love."

The former soldier's illegal return to Germany and his two previous jail breaks were prompted by his ardor for the Bavarian miss, Anna Sporer.

The 27-year-old former GI from Muskogee, Okla., attempted to hide under the bed when police entered the room but his feet protruded.

The Oklahoma offered no resistance, was handcuffed and led away to American military police headquarters in Munich.

Cook was said to have entered the girl's room last night. He had broken out of a Dachau prison cell on Tuesday, by bending the bars of his cell with his bare hands.

In Germany Illegally
The 200-pound Cook returned to Germany illegally to rejoin the Sporer girl.

At the time of his latest break he was scheduled to be tried June 21 on some 19 charges resulting from his illegal entry into Bavaria and his two previous escapes.

Cook ran his record up to three escapes in about two months, twice (Continued on Page Two)

Seek To Remove Plan To Block Excise Tax Cuts

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(INS)—Administration leaders sought today to remove a threatened one-third cut in excise taxes from the bill which could block excise cuts this year.

Prospects of getting a tax bill through before adjournment remained clouded as a result of a dispute over cigarette taxes.

They had brightened yesterday when House leaders reported that the Democratic members of the House, Ways and Means committee, which Doughton heads, had tentatively agreed to go along on a three percentage point increase in corporation taxes.

The increase would bring in sufficient revenue to balance the bill and not increase the already-large treasury deficit.

Small Girl Fatally Hurt When Knocked From Moving Auto

GLEN ROCK, Pa., June 16.—(INS)—An 18-month-old girl was crushed to death and four other persons were injured last night in a collision six miles west of Glen Rock, York county.

The dead child, Mary Alice Herbst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Herbst of Laverne, Cal., was sitting on her father's lap when the car was struck by the other auto, according to state police. The baby fell through an open door as the car was rolling over, police said.

Pittsburgh Milk Strike Continues

PITTSBURGH, June 16.—(INS)—New negotiations in the nine-day old milk strike that has cut off milk to some 2,300,000 Pittsburgh district consumers were scheduled for 1 p. m. today.

However, there still was no indication that either the Greater Pittsburgh Milk Dealers Association or the AFL Milk and Ice Cream Salesmen and Dairy Employees, Local 205, had softened their demands in the wage dispute.

Renovo Gas Well Fire Is Put Out Today

RENOVO, Pa., June 16.—(INS)—A five-day-old fire at a natural gas well near Renovo was extinguished today by an ear-splitting explosion of 46 quarts of nitroglycerin.

The charge was touched off by Texas oilman Paul Adair, summoned from Houston by the Leady Township Prospecting company to fight the blaze.

The well "blew in" Monday about 14 miles from Renovo in an area being combed by prospectors for natural gas.

Adair attempted to extinguish the blaze yesterday with two separate nitro charges of 10 and 13 quarts. He stepped up the charge today in a last effort to extinguish the fire which unofficially cost the well owners about $200 a minute.

Adair and his helpers were sprayed with water by members of the derrick crew as they prepared the well for the blast.

When all rubble was pulled free of the blazing well, Adair inched forward, placed the nitro near the fire and then returned to a safe distance and touched off the explosive with a detonator.

Child Strangled In Porch Gate

New Wilmington Baby Dies In Accident

Little Randall Winston Zimmerman, aged two years, of Beechwood Drive, New Wilmington was killed in a tragic accident at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening, when his head was caught in a collapsible gate, placed between the living room and kitchen of the home, and was strangled before aid could reach him.

The little fellow's mother, Mrs. John Zimmerman, had just gone outside to mow the grass, and felt the baby would be perfectly safe. When she returned to the house a few moments later, she found the little boy's neck wedged in the gate. A doctor was summoned, who pronounced him dead. It is believed that he had attempted to climb up on the gate, and that his foot slipped, and his neck was wedged between the folding sections of the gate.

The accident was all the more distressing, due to the fact that the father, who is a member of the Westminster College faculty, was out of town, being at State (Continued on Page Two)

Former Officer Under Arrest

Faces Espionage Charges Of F.B.I.

NEW YORK, June 16.—(INS)—David Greenglass, 28, a former U. S. Army non-commissioned officer at Albuquerque, N. M., was arrested today by the FBI on charges of espionage.

He is accused of passing atomic secrets to Harry Gold, recently indicted on charges of passing information to the convicted British spy, Klaus Fuchs, to the Russian intelligence service.

Sen. McCarthy Makes Denial Of Charge

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(INS)—A prompt, sharp denial today met the charge of Sen. McCarthy (R) Wis., that a State Department reward had been promised an Amerasia case witness for favorable testimony before the Senate Loyalty Committee.

The Wisconsin Republican said that Emmanuel Larsen, former State Department employee, was promised loyalty clearance and free legal advice by Deputy Undersecretary of State John E. Puerfify if he would not testify against career diplomat John Service.

Puerfify immediately denied the charge and accused McCarthy of offering Larsen protection himself.

Another Spy Suspect Under Arrest By F.B.I.

Chemist Held At Utica, N. Y., Under Bail Bond Of $100,000

By FRED HILLEGAS
(I. N. S. Special Correspondent)

UTICA, N. Y., June 16.—A bespectacled chemist who portended "I'm just an average guy" when seized as an alleged spy in the Russian apparatus which funneled atomic secrets to Moscow, will be questioned by the FBI today in the predicted forerunner to additional arrests.

Alfred Dean Slack, 44, whose homey garb of a weather-stained coat, white T-shirt and baggy trousers contrasted with his precise professional manner, spent the night in the county jail at Utica under a constant suicide guard.

Second Suspect
The arrest of Slack in his farm home outside Syracuse yesterday was the second of an American suspect in the espionage network which starred Dr. Klaus Fuchs, sentenced in England to 14 years in prison for betraying atomic secrets to the Russians.

Harry Gold, 39, Philadelphia biochemist, was arrested earlier as an alleged confederate of the German-born Fuchs and is now in Holmesburg prison in lieu of $100,000 bail awaiting transfer to Brooklyn for a hearing.

Slack also was ordered held in $100,000 bail. His arrest came in the chain of developments which started when the American FBI tipped off British officials to the spying activities of Fuchs. The latter implicated Gold.

Two Russians Escape
But two Russian officials named by FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover as allegedly having received top secret information from Gold and Slack are beyond the reach of American law.

Hoover identified them as Semen M. Semenov, former employee of the Russian Amtorg Trading corporation, and Anatoli A. Yakovlev, former Soviet vice consul in the new Soviet consulate in New York City.

Hoover said Semenov is the "Richard Roe alias Sam" and Yakovlev the John Doe alias "John" named in an indictment last week by a Brooklyn grand jury bracketing the two Russians with Gold.

This was the first time that Russian diplomats were specifically named on espionage charges by the United States since its recognition of the Soviet government.

According to the FBI, both Russians have left the country. Semenov in September of 1944 and Yakovlev two years later.

By now the vets have settled down, their arms are warm, their hearts are high, they're smacking balls to here and gone, and seldom balls to an infield fly. It takes a time for veterans to warm the soup bone in the spring, when buds are new and breezes balm, and all the birdsies start to sing. It takes the boiling summer sun to loosen up the veterans' arm, that he can call the runner sans delay, but now the vets are doing well, it's eighty-two and warm today.

"Stupid" Position

Sen. O'Mahoney (D) Wyo., also a member of the purse-holding unit, said that American cooperation with other countries is based only on the condition they be free. He said it was "stupid" for the British Labor party to "insist on Socialist regimes in other countries" as the price of its cooperation.

The stand of the executive committee of the Labor party came in the attack at a joint hearing of the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committee on the new military aid bill.

Foreign Aid Administrator Paul G. Hoffman said he thought the United States should get an explanation from the British government on its foreign policy.

BABY-SITTING

CONSHOHOCKEN, Pa.—(INS)—Baby-sitting is a skilled trade in the town of Conshohocken, not far from Philadelphia. A free, two months course in baby-sitting is being offered to students of Conshohocken High school. The course was instituted by School Superintendent Robert Landis after he had read accounts of some accidents to youngsters through carelessness or ignorance on the part of their sitters. Among the many things the girls learn in the class are not to raid the ice box, not to turn on the television set or radio without an employer's permission and not to have "dates" while they're baby-sitting.

Mrs. Charles Blasucci of East Long avenue welcomed members of the Q-Jeans club into her home on Wednesday evening.

Cards were the pastime, with high score prize given to Mrs. Rudy Eagan. Later, a tempting lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Leonard Troco.

On June 29, the group will gather at the home of Mrs. Tony Latore, Mercer street.

WILLIAMS-SCARNATI EXCHANGE OF VOWS

St. Mary's church was the scene of a lovely late spring wedding which united in marriage Miss Barbara Jean Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Williams, West Washington street, and Albert M. Scarnati, son of the late Mrs. Catherine Scarnati, Shadyside avenue.

Wedding vows were repeated on Saturday, June 19, at nine a. m., with Rev. Fr. Francis McCarter officiating at the double ring service.

Given in marriage by her father, the attractive bride wore a white colonial style gown, fashioned with a net yoke edged with dainty lace ruffles. The full hoop skirt was caught up at the hemline, revealing lace ruffles. A long cathedral train was lined with the same lace. Her fingertip veil cascaded front a sweetheart crown edged with orange blossoms. She carried a colonial bouquet of orchids with streamers. Her jewelry was a rhinestone necklace, a gift of the groom. Something old, new, borrowed, blue was observed by the bride.

Miss Hortense Scarnati, sister of the groom, was maid of honor for the wedding, wearing a pink tulle gown, styled with a net yoke and hoop skirt. A bustle back added interest to the full skirt. Matching picture hat and mitts and a colonial bouquet of flowers completed the charming ensemble.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Ann Conti, Sue Passerello, Blanche DiCola and Mary McCann, cousin of the bride, from Youngstown. They were gowned in blue tulle, fashioned like that of the maid of honor. Matching picture hats and mitts were pretty features of the costumes. Each carried a colonial bouquet of flowers.

Miss Barbara Remesnik, niece of the groom, was junior bridesmaid, wearing a white gown similar to that of the bride. James Must accompanied her in the bridal procession.

Rocky Siberto served the groom as best man. Ushering were Joe Caimano, Bob Williams, brother of the bride; James Scarnati, brother of the groom, and Gus Fornatano.

St. Mary's choir sang appropriate nuptial music.

A reception was held at the Arena from 7:30 to midnight with 600 guests attending. A popular orchestra furnished music for dancing with special selections by John Marshall of New Castle.

The couple later departed for a trip to New Orleans by car. Upon their return they will reside at 409 Shadyside avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Scarnati are graduates of the local high school. Mrs. Scarnati is employed at the Jameson Memorial hospital, while Mr. Scarnati is a cabinet maker at the Citizen's Lumber company.

FATHERS AND SONS ENJOY BANQUET

Approximately 75 persons attended the annual Fathers and Sons banquet of Calvary Gospel Tabernacle, of which Rev. Howard B. Sartel is pastor, at a Harbans restaurant last night. L. B. Round was chairman and the principal address was delivered by "Uncle" Bob Pollock.

The invocation was pronounced by A. H. Robb and the group singing was led by Don Bailey.

Louis Hunter, Sunday school superintendent, delivered a brief address. Edward Borger gave several Harmonica selections.

"Uncle" Bob Pollock told his audience that people should recognize and respect the law of the land, the law of nature and the law of God.

THE GERMANY'S EMERGE

A Germany split down the middle is beginning to emerge again as a factor in world politics. That is a certainty as a result of two announcements, one by Russian-occupied East Germany, the other by the Bonn government of West Germany, occupied by the United States, France and Britain.

The announcements add up to this: The two competing governments of Germany will each enter into treaties and agreements with other nations of the world. In both cases, the occupation powers retain the right of veto. Russia, as her UN record shows, will use that right at every opportunity to further her own interests.

The important point is that the relations of both Germanys with other nations will increasingly be regulated by international agreements which they themselves have negotiated and signed.

West Germany will use its new freedom in negotiating an agreement with France and other countries to implement the Schuman plan for integration of French and German coal and steel industries. West Germany will also be able to join the Council of Europe as a virtually independent member. The Bonn government will act on a great many international agreements on such matters as health, labor and social security.

All such arrangements will help bring demilitarized Western Germany back into the community of Europe. They will serve to promote greater unity and prosperity in western Europe, and tend toward the solution of still-existing problems which are grist for the communist mill.

The western powers have announced the intention of giving the Bonn government the greatest possible leeway in this respect. It will not be forced to make agreements against its will, and no straitforward and reasonable proposal is likely to be vetoed by the occupying powers.

The announcement from the other Germany, on the contrary, shows that it will get no such leeway. The regime there has just signed a treaty with Poland relinquishing all claim to German territory east of the Oder-Neisse line. No German government would take such an action except under compulsion. No doubt the Russians insisted on it as a prelude to a separate peace "with Germany."

TITO-STALIN "COLD WAR"

The Tito-Stalin "little cold war" may well be phony, engineered by the Kremlin to deceive the United States and win a battle in the East-West conflict, according to a man once high in Communist policy-making circles in Pennsylvania.

Matthew Cvetic, who posed as a Communist for seven years while piping information on the Reds to the FBI, says the State department should be extremely wary of the Yugoslav-Russian split.

Cvetic said Steve Nelson, Communist organizer assigned to the Pennsylvania area, always put his tongue in his cheek when he was asked to explain the Red dictator's rift. An air of amusement on the part of a man in on top level Communist strategy, Cvetic said, hardly matches the angry front put up by the Kremlin for United States benefit on the sensational split.

Cvetic pointed out that the Yugoslav dictator has obtained dollar loans since his split with Moscow and has used the money to buy American machine tools and precision equipment of a quality scarce behind the Iron Curtain. "When the Yugoslavs have stocked up on United States equipment," he added, "you may see Stalin and Tito kiss and make up."

WE'RE STILL PRIMITIVE

The other day, preliminary to a baseball game in Trenton, N. J., a local strong man attempted to lift two elephants, weighing a combined 5,000 pounds. His goal was to beat the world's lifting record of 4,140 pounds, held by a Canadian.

The strong man has been with us always. Ever since Samson pulled down the walls of the temple to put the Philistines in their place, each succeeding generation has had men of great physical prowess. The modern Sandow held forth many years, and thousands of men attempted to follow his example. There still is glory to be won by a display of great physical prowess.

Although it has been alleged humanity has become weaker but wiser, physical strength continues to be on exhibition. The mythical Tarzan is still the idol of youngsters. Perhaps we are still primitive to a greater degree than modern society realizes.

JET PLANE CHECKUP

A hush-hush mission will go to Europe in a few weeks to check up on United States jet plane strength and effectiveness.

Included in the group will be the air force's top young jet plane experts and a similar group from the aircraft companies whose planes are operating in Europe.

The checkup will feature an evaluation of what United States jet planes could do to check any sudden aggression. That is one reason young men, who were combat aces during the last war, are heading up the mission. They know the continent intimately.

United States jet strength in Europe is light at present. Presumably the mission will decide whether it should be reinforced.

It used to be that when one walked by a friend's house and saw the lights were out he guessed that the family were in bed or away from home. Now he knows that the family is in there watching Milton Berle.

To Discuss Schuman Plan

Delegates of six European nations will meet in Paris beginning June 20 to discuss the Schuman plan and some concrete information finally may be forthcoming with regard to what still is something of an international mystery.

Superficially, the scheme is plain enough. French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman simply has proposed that the iron and steel industries of Lorraine be merged with the coal production of the German Ruhr, with other nations later pooling their resources in a vast "reservoir of peace."

But there are such wide ramifications and so many interlocking interests sandwiched in with ancient rivalries that no really clear picture has yet emerged.

Original Marshall Plan

The Marshall plan originally was voiced in very general terms also. That was what former Secretary of State George C. Marshall intended. He enunciated a policy whereby the United States would aid post-war Europe with food, money and the other implements of recovery on condition that each nation do everything it possibly could for itself.

Later, when the Marshall plan details were worked out, they proved highly complicated. But the original aim was clear from the outset and every European knew at the beginning that if he did his share he could count on American generosity for every possible assistance.

The Schuman plan, on the other hand, deeply involves capital, big business, vested economic interests, the problems of labor, trade, competition, export and import—in other words every conceivable phase of production and marketing.

Easier To Understand

These ramifications make it easier to understand why Prime Minister Clement Attlee is sitting on the fence so far as Great Britain is concerned.

He has promised British participation in all recovery measures. And while his own Labor party executive committee has rejected the Schuman plan in its entirety, Attlee has announced that any final decision will be reserved until he knows what it is all about.

This same attitude, as a matter of fact, seems to be prevalent in the lowlands and in Italy, even though these nations will join with France and western Germany in the June 20 talks.

And it exists to some extent in the two countries chiefly interested.

French coal and steel producers are reported opposed to the plan on the ground it may lead to nationalization of their industries. The big coal men of the Ruhr have their reservations also.

Already sharply restricted in their operations by occupational statutes, they have little desire to hand over the remnants of their power to international control.

Generally speaking, the Schuman plan obviously is to gear production for widest possible consumption and so benefit all European people.

A big question, of course, is whether it will benefit the groups or the families which for decades have had important financial interests in the industries concerned.

Nationalization takes care of this sort of thing without any question. But even in Laborite Britain, nationalization has lost a great deal of its appeal and Attlee has been forced to cut it down sharply or bow out of office.

Schuman insists that nationalization has no place in his scheme. He declares also that it will not affect salaries and wages.

But he has not explained how such a revolutionary undertaking as he proposes can fail to have an effect one way or another upon all the vital elements of business.

Such explanations may be forthcoming next week.

The west Germans, as a defeated people, may be compelled to sit in as mere listeners most of the time. But it is an entirely safe assumption that the shrewd Belgians, the thrifty Dutch, the businesslike Luxembourgish and the far-sighted Italians will pry out everything there is to know.

And Britain's reaction to these disclosures may be the factor that will reveal at length whether Schuman's plan is a feasible one or a Utopian dream.

WHO LIKES BUGS?
Girls are afraid of bugs and worms. They are pretty wise. Bugs cause a lot of trouble.

There are so many different kinds that it takes a scientist to know all of them.

So many of them are disease carriers that it is safer to be suspicious of all of them.

Roaches and bedbugs and ticks and mosquitoes and flies are bad actors. Mom doesn't want any of them. She is on the lookout all the time. One fly is one too many.

Some neighborhoods have more flies than others. You can tell the quality of a neighborhood by the fly situation.

Since writing about motorists and their failings . . . several phone calls and letters have arrived telling us that we are on the right track . . . well these words of encouragement are appreciated . . . we only hope that all peoples will remember the rules of the road . . . and the golden rule.

But here is an example of how people disregard their own safety . . . and the safety of others. On the west side of town we have a street called Miller avenue . . . for years and years the residents of this street have been asking that the street be paved . . . a meeting of the minds has taken place . . . the street will be paved . . . But when the work was started complications arose as is always the case . . . ditches were made across the street which made it necessary to block off traffic . . . Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Few Want This Thankless Task

WASHINGTON, June 16.—You hear the question frequently asked in Washington: When will McCarthyism end? It is asked by those who feel, along with Senator Margaret Chase Smith, that the technique of smear and counter-smear is doing infinite harm to the political and moral life of the nation.

It is being asked, above all, in the State department where thousands of hours of effort have gone into refuting the attack with proper documentation. The whole episode has handicapped the work of the department in every respect.

The idea of a commission of citizens of integrity and stature who would review the whole security policy of the department in relation to the charges was approved by the White House. Inspired stories disclosed that 10 days ago.

Since then the difficulty has been in persuading the top-ranking citizens to take on this inevitably exacting and most probably unpleasant and thankless chore. At least two tentative acceptances have been obtained. One is that of Chief Justice John Patrick Higgins of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts. Chief Justice Higgins is active in the Roman Catholic Church.

The other tentative acceptance was wrung from Charles E. Wilson, head of the General Electric Corp. Mr. Wilson has several times proved his willingness to take a tough job in the public interest and to give of his time earnestly and conscientiously.

Unfortunately, a third citizen approached had reluctantly to say no. The third citizen was Charles P. Taft, brother of Senator Robert A. Taft. Like Wilson, Taft has again and again served the public interest with no prospect of reward other than a sense of duty done.

But in this instance, it is reported, Taft replied that because of his position as a member of the Cincinnati (Ohio) city council he could not accept a temporary assignment likely to take him to Washington for a considerable period. This decision caused keen disappointment among those trying to shape up a commission that will win acceptance with public opinion. While Charles Taft's views have frequently differed from those of Robert's he is a lifelong Republican who has taken an active part in reforming the politics of his home town.

Presumably such a non-partisan and non-political commission would have access to the security files that the President has denied to Senators on both sides of the bitter dispute over the State department policy and security. After a thorough and impartial study of the controversy and all the records the commission would make its report. This report would then be taken as the final word by the administration and its recommendations would be carried out regardless of the consequences.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson is not, however, waiting on the success or failure of this approach. Beginning with his speech in Dallas, Texas, he is starting out on a campaign to win friends and influence people.

The secretary will speak to the governors of the states at their conference at White Sulphur Springs on June 20. A brief part of this talk is to be on the record, and then Acheson will speak off the record, and really go to town on the problems of policy-making in a period such as ours. Two days later he makes an important speech at Harvard university which was the setting for the address by his predecessor, General George C. Marshall, projecting the concept of the Marshall Plan. On June 29 Acheson will address the annual convention of the American Newspaper Guild in Washington, and on July 18 before the international convention of the Lion's service clubs in Chicago.

This is a course long urged on the secretary to whom eloquence and persuasion do not come naturally. He has held to the view that if a man did his duty thoroughly and conscientiously, he would inevitably win public acceptance.

The Dallas speech showed a recognition of the need to answer the hopes and fears of people everywhere; those people who have had a growing sense of a world constricting in narrower and narrower circles toward an inevitable doom.

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan
(By International News Service)

Not everyone is headed for beach or mountains this summer. Senate Republicans just want to spend a few weeks in a nice cool room in the Justice department.

They keep sending postcards home with pictures of the building and the message "Wish we were here."

It isn't that they suspect anyone of deliberately jobbing the Amerasia case . . . they just want to know who did it.

But there's a nice arrangement now . . . Mr. Truman is keeping an eye on Moscow and the Republicans are watching things in Washington.

Every time he says "Look . . . where I'm pointing" they say "We will, if you'll look where we're pointing."

It works fine for us . . . We're sure to know everything that's going on if only we could understand it.

Officers Will Be Installed

Holy Name Society Program Sunday

MSGR. MATTINGLY

Formal installation of 30 officers of St. Mary's Holy Name society will take place in the sanctuary of the church Sunday evening, June 18, at 7:45.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Herman Mattingly, S.T.D., Litt.D., editor of the Columbus Register, Columbus, O., will preside. These officers were elected to the executive committee last May.

Installation begins with the triumphant procession, with the Rt. Rev. Msgr., his attendants and 30 officers in formal attire, marching across the rectory to the church. From the organ, strains of "Processional in Honor of Pope Leo XIII" by Perosi will be heard.

Plan Installation
Thirty officers will take the oath and will be inaugurated to their respective offices according to the ancient ritual of the Holy Name society prescribed by Pope Gregory X. Father King will accept the pledges and confer the officer's insignia of authority and delegation.

To Have Induction
A large class of candidates will be inducted into the society in the church nave. Father King, director and moderator will receive the candidates' pledges and invest them in the Holy Name insignia, entitling them to spiritual and temporal benefits. Father McCarter, pastor of St. Mary's and honorary president, will bless the insignia.

Executives to be placed in the many fields of endeavor of the society will be seated during installation and these are: Bernard N. Hanlon, John J. Maher, Dr. John A. Meehan, Sr., James T. Carey, John S. Newman, Daniel J. Hanlon, William J. Carlin, N. M. Fellers, Angelo A. Frediani, Joseph C.

Heaney, Sr., James A. Lombardo, Sr., Daniel A. Quinn, Sr., Oscar L. Murphy, Sr., John L. Burns, Jr., Richard M. Burke and T. Dale Young.

After the installation, the solemn holy hour of Purification and Atonement will take place with Rev. Fr. Francis McCarter as celebrant, Rev. Fr. William M. Pisarcik of St. Michael's as deacon and Rev. Fr. Gerard D. Kelly as sub-deacon. Rev. Fr. Francis King will be head master of ceremonies, assisted by Robert B. Hart and Russell Hanlon.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will take place for the adoration of the faithful.

The musical program with Mrs. Wanda Giannone at the console will be sung in Gregorian chant by the senior male choirs.

Msgr. Mattingly To Speak

After the prescribed prayers of atonement and purification, the sermon will be preached by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Herman E. Mattingly. He has chosen for his subject "The Great Need of the Holy Name Man in the World Today."

The most solemn part of the Holy Hour will take place. It will consist of the consecration of the individual Holy Name man and then his family to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, because the Holy Name man is ever mindful of the fact that Jesus Christ is the Way, the Truth and the Life, his Guide, his Standard, his Ideal and his final Judge.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be followed by the "Te Deum," sung by the congregation. "The March Pontifical" by F. DeLaTombelle will be the recessional. A congratulatory period will follow in the Catholic center, concluding the installation.

Rev. Franklin Krall At Leesburg Rally

Rev. Franklin Krall, better known as the "Country Preacher," from Gibsonia, Pa., will be the featured speaker at the Leesburg Youth for Christ rally, Saturday evening, June 17 at 8 o'clock to be held in the Leesburg Presbyterian church. Kenneth Bunney, talented pianist and Harry Strobel, trombonist will be present to aid in the musical portion of the program.

Rev. Krall will be heard in vocal selections after which he will present the evening address. Good group singing will open the program.

RAVINE CAUSED BY STORM

—Acme Telephoto

WHEELING, W. VA.—The fury of a storm that hit in the vicinity of Natick, W. Va., ripped a great gully through a level field at the old well sand pit. Soil conservation officials described the gully as 320 feet long on its greater side and 150 feet on the lesser, with a width of a 100 feet and a depth of 60 feet on spots. Under normal conditions creations of such a gully would have required many years.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

The late Governor Al Smith delighted in conducting visitors on tours of the Empire State building, but one fussy old lady tried his patience sorely by asking him a dozen silly questions at every turn. Finally, as an express elevator shot the party down from the eighty-first floor to the lobby, she gasped "What would happen, Governor, if the elevator cable broke suddenly? Would we go up or down?" Smith gulped convulsively, then answered gravely, "That would depend entirely, madam, upon the kind of life you've been leading."

"I'm the greatest sensation on Broadway," exulted a ham actor to Oliver Herford one day at the Lambs' Club. "Why, last night I had the audience glued to their seats."

Herford sipped his sherry and murmured, "Capital, my dear fellow. How clever of you to think of it!" (Copyright, 1950, by Bennett Cerf, Distributed by King Features Syndicate)

BRONX CHEER

PHILADELPHIA — (INS) — A Philadelphia psychiatrist thinks many adults would be better off if they took up the "Bronx cheer" at baseball games. Dr. Baldwin L. Keyes, professor of psychiatry at Jefferson Medical College, says that being boisterous at ball parks is the natural way to be. It shows that adults can return to their adolescent days, Dr. Keyes explains, and it's good for them.

Abraham Lincoln, as President, was entitled to and had a standing to take his place in the Union Army.

Red Suit Against MacArthur's Order Thrown Out Of Court

TOKYO, June 16.—(INS)—A suit by Japan's Communist party for an injunction against Gen. Douglas MacArthur's purge of 24 top Red leaders was thrown out of court today.

It was the first time any order by Gen. MacArthur or his Allied Occupation Headquarters had been challenged in the courts.

The suit asked for an injunction to block enforcement of MacArthur's recent directive to the Japanese government to purge all 24 members of the Communist party's ruling central committee from all public activity.

It was denied by the Tokyo district court.

N.S.A. Chapter Has Installation

CHOO-CHOO

The Oakland city council has adopted a proposal providing for a miniature steam railroad to be built in a city park. Already purchased are an engine and several cars which Councilman Raymond Pease, a railroad fireman, says are exact replicas of those now in use on the nation's railroads. Oakland kids, who haven't rejected the "iron horse" in favor of Hopalong Cassidy's steed, will be able to enjoy a ride for only a small fee.

Ordinary Field Artillery May Get Atomic Shells

By DARRELL GARWOOD
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 15—(INS)—The United States Army is working on an active project to build atomic warheads into shells that can be fired by ordinary field artillery.

The army, utilizing new scientific information, hopes to develop atomic missiles weighing less than 300 pounds.

The warheads, to be fired from conventional-sized field artillery guns, and in guided missiles, are expected to be available within two to five years.

The probability of such small-package atomic exploders is understood to have been established since the defense department's annual report to Congress was issued April 22.

Their successful development would raise anew the possibility, once scoffed at by scientists, that an atomic bomb could be carried in a suitcase.

Artillery Size

A B-36 bomber built to deliver one atomic bomb from 10,000 miles could carry a dozen or more if artillery-size bombs could be used.

It is assumed that even though varying in power, atomic explosions are all in the same order of size, in the sense that they dwarf conventional explosions.

Information now available throws light on Army Gen. J. Lawton Collins' statement last week that it is "by no means impossible" to build an artillery piece that would fire an atomic shell.

Collins was speaking of atomic explosive shells to be fired from standard-sized field guns. The largest field gun now in use hurls a 365-pound projectile.

The main purpose in developing atomic artillery and guided missiles is to achieve greater accuracy than can be obtained with the air-dropped bombs.

The Army believes that valuable atomic explosives could not be used for tactical purposes unless accuracy was greater than is usual for bombing.

Against troops, it is expected that atomic explosives could be used only when the enemy is concentrated to attack, to cross a river or to pass through a defile.

Atomic explosive might be used against massed tanks, but not if a cheaper and more efficient means of destroying the tanks was available.

Nyack Quartet At City Youth Rally

Ambassadors male quartet of the Missionary Training Institute, Nyack, N. Y., will be heard at the New Castle Youth for Christ rally at the First Baptist church, East at North street, at 7:45 o'clock Saturday evening.

The quartet, which is directed by Rev. John Taylor, dean of men of the school, is on a several thousand mile tour. They present the gospel in song, singing the old hymns as well as the spirituals. Piano selections are featured, as well as testimonies. Rev. Taylor will be the speaker of the evening.

Rev. F. Dickson Marshall will be in charge of the program with Mrs. Rose Bender at the organ.

Court Revokes Citizenship Of Harry Bridges

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16—(INS)—An order revoking the citizenship of Australian-born Harry Bridges, West Coast CIO Longshore leader, was issued today by Federal Judge George B. Harris of San Francisco.

The order was based on Bridges' conviction of lying when he denied he was or ever had been a member of the Communist party when granted citizenship in San Francisco Superior Court in 1945.

Bridges was convicted by a jury in Judge Harris' court last April 3 and is under sentence to five years in prison for perjury. He has appealed to the Ninth Federal Circuit Court.

Neither Bridges nor any of the attorneys in the case were present when Judge Harris filed his order and a written opinion.

In his opinion Judge Harris said the evidence at Bridges' trial that he lied was "convincing" and "his guilt was established to a moral certainty and beyond a reasonable doubt."

Committees Give Arms Aid Approval

WASHINGTON, June 16—(INS)—Two senate committees today approved tentatively $1,222,500,000 in funds for a new arms aid program for the North Atlantic pact countries and other anti-communist areas.

Chairman Connally (D) Tex., of the senate foreign relations committee, said the two groups will take formal vote on the bill Monday. But he said the amounts in the bill have been agreed on on an informal basis.

In addition to the $1,222,500,000 the bill provides for the transfer of 250 million dollars in surplus U. S. weapons to recipient countries.

The combined senate foreign relations and armed services committees made some restrictive changes in two controversial provisions of the bill which Connally said are still subject to further consideration.

PARKING COSTS

WASHINGTON—(INS)—Parking space for the 1949 crop of new cars and trucks was all that the 48 states received for nearly $4 billion spent on highways last year, according to Colonel Enoch R. Needless, president of the American Road Builders' Association. In a speech to a highway users conference, Col. Needless pointed out that if the record 6,250,000 cars and trucks produced last year were placed bumper to bumper they would stretch 20,000 miles. "And that," he said, happens to be equal to the nation's new road construction mileage in 1949. "Col. Needless' report observed that heavier traffic demands have "broken down" more than 40,000 miles of highways in the last year, so that we are now 20,000 miles "poorer," net, than we were in 1948 despite the $4 billion expenditure.

Purchasers Get Final Approval

Western Pennsylvania Association Accepted

At the national convention of the National Association of Purchasing Agents, held this week in Cleveland, the request of the Western Pennsylvania Purchasing Agents Association, composed of purchasing agents from New Castle and the surrounding district, for affiliation with the national organization was given approval, and the local body was accepted into membership by the parent body.

President E. Frank Strizzi, and Don Haben, Gene Kerr, and Nile Simpson, were in attendance at the convention, and their petition for membership was approved by the district council, which in turn submitted it to the executive board of the national body, who gave final approval.

A charter will be issued to the local association, which will be presented at a meeting to be held during the month of September. Don Haben, of the Johnson Bronze Company, was named a national director from the local association.

The next meeting of the Western Pennsylvania Association will take place on Wednesday evening, in The Castleton, when further plans in the organization of the local chapter will be discussed.

Egg Production Record Set In May

HARRISBURG, June 16.—(INS)—Egg production set a new record for the month of May despite a heavy reduction in Pennsylvania farm flocks, the state agriculture department reports.

Higher feed costs and lower prices for eggs and poultry caused a reduction in numbers of layers, the department said, but 318,000,000 eggs were produced.

Observers look for a new all-time egg-production record this year, with the total for the first five months of the year at 1,575,000,000 compared to 1,491,000,000 for the same period last year.

Folks Of Fame

Elmo Lincoln was born in Rochester, Ind., Feb. 6, 1889, and educated there. He played in stock for two seasons, then began his career in films in D. W. Griffith's "Birth of a Nation." This was, of course, before the screen became vocal. Intolerance followed, then "The Kaiser," "The Beast of Berlin," and "The Great Western." Then with "Great Western Productions" he began a series—Adventures of Tarzan—being the first movie Tarzan. He played also in "Desperation," "The Light in the Dark," and "Quincy Adams Sawyer."

Born in Cheapside, London, England, July 10, 1723, Sir William Blackstone went to Pembroke college, Oxford, when he was 15. Called to the bar in 1746, he tried to practice law but with little success. However, reading law lectures at Oxford his hearers were captivated by the lucidity and charm of his style, and by the simplicity with which he presented his subject.

Thereafter he became England's most famous jurist. His famous Commentaries have been used as the framework upon which all the additions made to the law of statute or decisions since his day have been attached for use of law students preparing for examinations. They now mostly are valued for their literary and historical value.

MILK SUGGESTION

PHILADELPHIA — (INS) — A college professor has offered a four-point plan aimed at keeping milk at its best. Vladimir N. Krukowsky, professor of dairy industry at Cornell university, dropped the hints recently at a meeting of the American Chemical Society in Philadelphia. He suggested: 1. Keep milk away from the light. 2. If you must skim the cream off the top of the bottle, use the skim milk as soon as possible. 3. Don't collect cream from the top of several bottles because the mixture may cause all the cream to spoil. 4. Always finish an open bottle of milk before uncapping another bottle.

Seltzer And Young Awarded Contract

HARRISBURG, June 16.—(INS)—The General State Authority has awarded contracts totaling $43,582 for construction of three staff houses for physicians at Polk state school at Venango.

Weather Bureau Air Force Prep For Hurricanes

By JAMES RUSSELL

MIAMI, June 16.—(INS)—The Miami weather bureau and a group of dare-devil military flyers began their annual summer-fall hurricane vigil today. They will plot the developments and movements of dangerous tropical storms that breed in the hot doldrums, south of Florida.

Opening of the five-month-long Atlantic-Caribbean hurricane season found the civilian storm forecasters and air force and navy weather experts better prepared than ever before to match man's wits against nature's fury.

New radar equipment acquired by the Miami weather station, plus improved storm-tracking techniques for aerial "hurricane hunters" will enable the weathermen to do a more exacting job of forecasting precise movements of storm centers.

A new radar storm-plotting device now functions atop the Technical High School building which houses the Miami weather bureau office.

Chief Forecaster Grady Norton, master-minding the hurricane prediction work from his office, said the new equipment will track hurricanes with pin-point accuracy within a radius of 200 miles of Miami.

Before a storm reaches the 200-mile radius zone, its movements will be followed by trained air force and navy airmen flying thru storm areas routinely to keep abreast of their characteristics.

Norton said the new radar screen in the bureau will augment observation work on the military fliers and make storm-tracking easier for Miami forecasters.

With the assistance of the radar, the forecasters believe they can predict almost the precise location where 1950 hurricanes will strike the mainland—if they strike.

Severe Damage
Last year's most damaging hurricane smacked into the Florida east coastal area near West Palm Beach and moved diagonally up the state, leaving a 60 million dollar trail of damage in its wake.

The primary responsibility for mapping the future movements and gauging the force of newly-formed hurricanes lies with the military airmen.

Bill Collectors Have 'New Look'

DETROIT, June 16.—(INS)—America's bill collectors Thursday pointed out they are through with the "low-down technique" and want to be known as "adjustors of delinquent obligations."

This information came from the started today in Detroit and will annual convention of the American Collectors Association, Inc., which last all week.

Executive Secretary Glenn Sanberg, of Minneapolis, explained: "We're trying to get away from the 'bill collector' name and what goes with it. Twenty-five years ago some of us used the red car with 'collection agency' on the side and parked it in front of the debtor's house. But no more."

Sanberg said 90 per cent of debtors are honest and want to pay but drinking, alimony, illness, poor management, or gambling cause them to fall behind.

He explained that "adjustors" now try to live up to the name, even setting up household budgets for some people so they will keep up with their obligations.

Vice-President Sidney J. Winer of Detroit, added: "We even have people come in afterwards and thank us. That's how the business has changed in 20 years."

The association has 1,600 members across the country and boasts of co-operation that enables them to put a representative on any fleeing debtor's doorstep within 24 hours.

Winer said: "Even the FBI asks us to find people for them."

Virginia's Gloria

18-YEAR-OLD Gloria Fenderson, Petersburg, Va., is "Miss Virginia" for this year's "Miss America" beauty pageant at Atlantic City, N. J. She's a green-eyed blonde, weighs 108, is 5-feet-2, wants a screen career. (International)

Thieves Caught After Third Time

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—(INS)—A West Philadelphia grocer is confident that business will be picking up now that he has lost a couple of old customers.

The unwanted customers—James W. Jackson, 28, and Coy Wombles, 19, were whisked off to jail by Judge Edward P. Little after hearing testimony that they held up the place three times in five weeks and obtained more than $1200 in cash.

Bernard and Lyla Budnick were their first victims. They robbed the Budnicks—and slugged Mrs. Budnick with a pistol butt—in the store March 17, and made off with about $300.

So the Budnicks decided to sell, but on April 8, when they were about to close the sale in the store with Louis and Minnie Kilberg, the robbers struck again, taking $623, and scaring the Kilbergs away from buying the place. Finally they sold the store to Samuel Cheepnick, and on April 21 went to the place to settle some old accounts, when in popped the robbers again and made off with $293.

Jackson finally surrendered to police last month and implicated Womble.

Shack Burns Down Near Garbage Plant

City firemen were called to the vicinity of the garbage plant at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, where a shack formerly occupied by "Handsome" Allen, burned down.

According to some boys who were at the scene, the owner sent them to the location to burn the shack down, Mr. Allen being at the county home. Police were ordered to bring the owner and the boys to the police station, as it is against fire regulations to dispose of property in this manner.

New York Called Worst Pagan City

OCEAN GROVE, N. J., June 17.—(INS)—The Rev. George W. Webster, dean of students at the Union Theological seminary, says that New York "is the greatest pagan city in the world."

Dean Webster said in an address: "Never before in history has such a large number of persons tried to live under the assumption that there is no divinity authority of any kind over their lives."

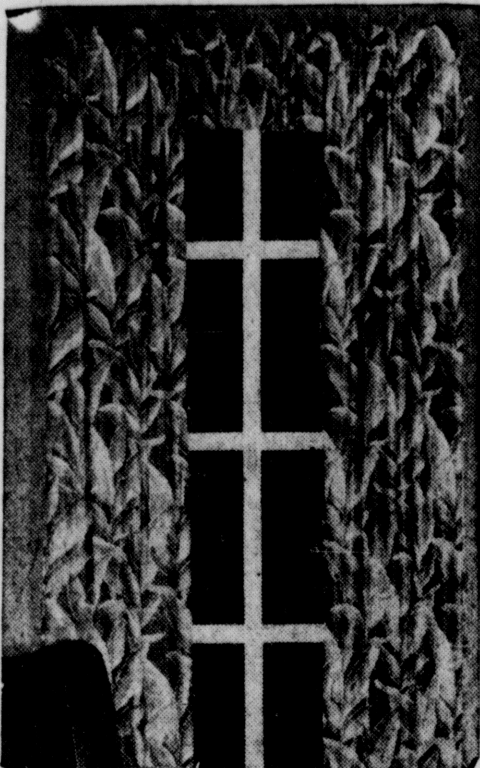

He added that the total membership of New York's churches and synagogues "account for less than half the adult population."

The executive power of Canada is vested in a governor-general.

The people of Quebec, Canada, are mainly French.

Babson Discusses Business And Theological Schools

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright—1950—Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)
BABSON PARK, Mass., June 16.—I will divert this week's column to what most readers will consider a subject entirely out of my field. Please, however, be patient and read this through. I feel it has an important suggestion to every businessman.

Here Is My Question

In view of a recent talk with President Edward B. Hinckley of Utopia college, Eureka, Kan., I have been studying the 200 theological schools in the U. S. and Canada. As a rule, they are well operated and fairly endowed, but most often are poorly attended. Perhaps, this is because they think too much concerning the "ministry of preaching" and too little about the "ministry of service."

Now for my question: "Why should these religious schools train men only to serve humanity thru the churches—why not train men also to serve humanity through business?" Certainly, almost all business concerns need more religion. They need more praying executives who are interested in rendering more service. This especially applies to sales managers and their assistants. If they have a product which the public needs, then why not use the power of prayer in its distribution? This may sound strange; but isn't it a fair question?

Consider A Drug Chain

I have in mind a small chain of some 60 well located drug stores. The president of the company is an honest, hard working man who knows the drug business from A to Z. He can control the buying which is very, very important—both as to goods selected and the prices paid. But otherwise he is largely dependent upon the present—more or less—indifferent character, energy and desire for service of the managers and clerks of these 60 stores. Hence, think what would happen if these present store managers—most of whom now are interested only in their monthly pay—should gradually be substituted by bright and ambitious graduates of theological colleges. These would be young men taught to like and help people and to get results through prayer—truly anxious to aid everyone who would come into the stores. Surely the reputation of these stores would rapidly increase.

Likewise these young theological graduates could meet more people and do more good in these drug stores than they could possibly do in a country church. If they want also to preach somewhere on Sundays, this could be arranged. They, moreover, would then preach a better sermon after five days in a prescription drug store serving the sick and friends of the sick. They also would have an opportunity of making friends with young people who congregate at the soda fountains.

Better Opportunities For Clerks

Such young men, who would begin as clerks, when later promoted to become store managers would employ only similar earnest praying people with a burning urge to be of service. This spirit of helpfulness would both appeal to doctors and give the stores a high standing in the community. They could then afford to sell only the best goods, being always assured of a fair profit.

I have used the drug store chain merely as an illustration. The same principle would apply to any store selling honest and useful merchandise. One of two things: Either devoted church people should make much better employees or else we had better reform our churches. Our present half-way attitude is a great mistake. Theological colleges might correct this.

More Students Should Attend Theological Schools

Or, such colleges could give a two-year course especially to train spiritually minded young people for business. They thereby could render further services as very few business colleges teach their students how to pray for or serve others. Such courses should naturally have some business studies covering selling, finance and administration; but these would also be helpful to those who are to enter the ministry of preaching. Not only does the nation's employment situation depend largely upon its selling organizations, but a preacher's usefulness depends much on his salesmanship abilities. Hence, the basic question: Do those attending theological colleges really want to help the most people in the most useful ways? If so, more of them should enter spiritually under-staffed businesses rather than overlapping churches.

Official Family Has Enjoyable Meeting

Official family of the First Methodist church, numbering 86, had an enjoyable meeting Wednesday evening, when new members of the board were special guests. Due to the weather, the dinner event was held in the church with a fellowship period being enjoyed. Rev. James A. Gaiser conducted the business meeting, with the new members being introduced. Following the business session, the group adjourned to the summer home of Mrs. C. Ed. Brown in Neshannock township, where a program of entertainment was provided. A feature of the evening was a treasure hunt directed by Mrs. William Sloan.

The various committees appointed were responsible for the success of the event. Chairmen included: Hostesses, Mrs. C. P. Cloak; food, Mrs. J. H. Elmore; transportation, J. C. Wachtman and entertainment, Roy C. Williams.

Touring History Class Stops Here

Members of the 1950 summer Pennsylvania History tour, conducted by Clarion State Teachers college, were in New Castle Wednesday evening and Thursday while on their tour of the state.

While in New Castle the group spent the night at the New Penn hotel and toured the Shenango Pottery. They left Thursday morning to visit McConnells Mills and go on with their tour, which will not end until June 23.

The group was made up of summer school students at the college studying for advanced degrees. They are touring the entire state, making stops at points of interest.

A survey shows that 22 per cent of women consider "faithfulness" the most important quality in a husband.

To Represent Church At National Council

Rev. Thomas J. Jones, pastor of First Congregational church, will represent the local church, at the National Council of Congregational-Christian churches, at Cleveland, during the week of June 18.

The issue of whether Protestant groups can unite or merge legally will be to the forefront, owing to the New York court decision upon the proposed merger of the Congregational-Christian churches with the Evangelical and Reformed Churches of America. At present, the New York State decision has stymied the movement of forming the United Church of Christ in America. The local pastor is a delegate to the Council.

West Side Grounds Begins Activities

Children of the west side district are really in their glory when they attend the playground in their community.

Special events at the grounds began Wednesday when a peanut hunt was the special feature of the afternoon. Those finding the most peanuts were Marvin Johnson, Junior Dierfield and Tony Younger, who were awarded an ice cream treat from a local dairy store.

Attendance at the playground, according to the instructors, Lois Baum and Bob Reed, has been excellent thus far this summer. The wading pool has been repaired and cemented, making it more popular than ever.

A midget mushball team is being organized, and daily practice being held in preparation for league games. Handicraft and a story hour are featured daily.

Harbor Street Has Entertaining Show

Even Dame Weather dawned to make the first special event at Harbor playground a great success.

While the older boys enjoyed a brush-up mushball game, the smaller children gathered for an amateur program. Twirling, violin solos, recitations and vocal numbers were the features of the event. Some of the participants were Patty Schranz, Carolyn Borton, Judy Tucker, Kay Cutchall, Donna Llewellyn and Patty McGuire.

Special emphasis was placed on Flag Day, in which Wylie Cutchall, Gary Gray and Raymond Goodrich took part.

Climaxing a most entertaining event was a treat for each youngster present. Several parents attended the event. Miss Martha Cutchall assisted the playground instructor, Jeanne Wallace.

Next Wednesday a pet show will be held at the playground at 2:30 o'clock.

State TB Secretary Visits Local Society

Mrs. Mary Rowe, statistical secretary of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis society, was a visitor at the local tuberculosis office during the past week.

Mrs. Rowe came here to discuss the possibilities of an isolation ward in the county with J. O. Huston, president of the county board of the tuberculosis society.

She brought with her the statement Dr. M. C. Stayer, head of tuberculosis control in Harrisburg, that there will be no bottleneck if the isolation ward is approved. She assured Mr. Huston that the patients will receive their turns to enter the sanatoriums.

The question has been brought up by the Lawrence county commissioners as to whether the patients that would be put in the county isolation ward would stay there or be moved on as quickly as possible.

A house to be used as a county isolation ward has been under consideration by the county commissioners, but final decision has been withheld until assurance is received concerning the moving of the patients to the sanatoriums.

Stock Market Is Improved

NEW YORK, June 16.—(INS)—The stock market displayed selective improvement today, following three successive sessions of decline. The majority of leaders were in the plus column, although gains were generally small.

Industrial favorites to improve over previous closing included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic Steel, DuPont, and Radio Corporation. Unchanged levels were noted for Westinghouse Electric, Anaconda, and Standard Oil of New Jersey, while General Electric was a shade easier.

The bond market was spotty, with no clear-cut trend in evidence. Commodities were mixed. Wheat was off 3/4 and corn was down 7/8, but cotton advanced 65 cents a bale.

Lady U.S. Treasurer Fears Becoming A Bureaucrat

By MARTHA KEARNEY
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(INS)—Georgia Neese Clark feels that she has worked too hard all her life to sit back and be a bureaucrat now.

Mrs. Clark, who celebrates her first anniversary as Treasurer of the United States next week, says that the past year has been about the busiest of her life—and she says she has loved every minute of it.

She has, in fact, turned out to be one of the administration's most valuable feminine assets on the chicken a la king and green peas circuit although she almost never makes a political speech.

Instead, she speaks to bankers' associations, bond drives, local chamber of commerce, college groups and women's organizations. Almost always, she addresses them on their own problems and circumstances.

Attractive, Too
A most attractive and persuasive brunette at 50, it is easy to see why even bankers would rather look at her than at her signature on, say, a thousand dollar bill.

The women's division of the Democratic National committee, impressed by her success as a public speaker, recently drafted her to act as a "professor" at the "fair deal facts seminar" where other Democratic women studied the art.

In addition to her duties at the Treasury department and her voluntary travels as a Democratic ambassador of good will Mrs. Clark still finds time to oversee her business enterprises back in Kansas.

She admits that sometimes she has the feeling that she is always packing a bag to go someplace or other but, she says, on the other hand, it would be strange not to be busy.

Former Actress
Mrs. Clark was an actress until 1934 when she went to work as a cashier at the Richland, Kans., State Bank. Within four years she had worked her way up to become the bank president.

Eventually she expanded her business operations to include the ownership of several farms, a grain elevator and a general store.

Mrs. Clark says she has enjoyed her year in Washington and has been amazed at the friendliness and kindness of the people in the capital.

She allows as how Washington parties are fun but, she adds firmly, not a steady diet. The reason for that is the same reason she has a positive horror or ever becoming a bureaucrat.

She has been so busy all her life, she says, that she has come to like it.

Detroit pitcher Paul Calvert recently "beamed" both Bob Porterfield and Danny Litwhiler.

NEW FABRICS
AKRON, O.—(INS)—A waterproof fabric has been developed which actually "breathes" off water vapor, thus eliminating excessive sweating and resultant chilling experienced in conventional waterproof materials. Potential uses for the new fabric, called Vaportex, are rainwear, sports jackets, industrial coveralls, aprons and utility garments, hospital sheeting, hunting coats, snow suits and the like, in which heat buildup and perspiration are excessive when present waterproof materials are used.

The carnation flower is native of Southern Europe.

Police Woman Begins Duties

Starts Services In Police Department

Miss Mary Jane Nord, began her duties as city police woman today, having been appointed by council recently, after having passed the civil service commission examination with a perfect mark.

Miss Nord served almost two years as a W.A.C.

She subscribed to the oath of office yesterday. It was administered by Acting Mayor Albert A. Hoyland.

Miss Nord will be the fourth police woman the city has had. The first was Mrs. Rae Muirhead, the second, Mrs. Minnie McKibben, and the third, Mrs. Catherine, Dukes, the latter employed temporarily, for six years.

When the civil service commission conducted an examination of candidates, Mrs. Dukes did not take the examination because she was over the age called for by candidates.

George Hockenberry and Victor Cubellis who also recently were elected policemen, received the oath of office some time ago.

Cubellis served temporarily in the police department for several years but recently has been engaged in other work.

Lewis A. McClung, receiver of taxes, reported that today is the end of the first quarter of 1950, for individuals living here and working where a wage tax is not imposed, to make their payments. The first quarter period consists of January, February, and March.

Relative to the net profits tax, only one estimate instead of three, will be necessary. The estimate may be paid next month.

No further payment will be necessary until they make their final estimate at the end of the year.

Relative to persons having a mercantile tax to pay, Mr. McClung stated that if the net profits tax does not exceed the full amount of the mercantile tax, the difference will be applied on the mercantile tax.

At present, Mr. McClung is trying to determine how much money this city owes the various townships where a wage tax is levied, and which was paid during the last half of 1949, to the city of New Castle.

Recent figures were given as $21,000. However, requests for distribution to the proper townships have been made recently, and the amount no doubt will grow.

Buy U.S. Bonds

By H. FREDERICK HAGEMANN, Jr., President, Rockland-Atlas National Bank of Boston

BOSTON, June 16.—Bankers have always supported the treasury in the sale of savings bonds to assure a wide distribution of the national debt and to provide a bulwark against inflationary pressures.

The holders of savings bonds, like shareholders in a company, can be expected to have a real interest in sound fiscal management.

In supporting the independence drive, the bankers throughout the country will be fostering among our citizens the spirit of personal liberty and financial independence.

Refunds on three out of five income tax returns will be made this year, the Bureau of Internal Revenue estimates.

PROTEST AGAINST HIGH TAXES

MONTICELLO, IND.—Paul D. Abbott, 27, veteran and father of three is furnishing his steel and glass tank preparatory to taking up housekeeping on the bottom of Shafer lake near here in a unique protest against hidden taxes. He says he will stay submerged in the tiny chamber until something is "done about elimination of excise and hidden taxes". The stunt is being sponsored by the Ideal Beach resort on the lake. The protester and his tank will be lowered into the water on June 18. Unidentified friend assists Abbott (on ladder) with his furnishing.

Nomination Fought

SELECTION by President Truman of Martin A. Hutchinson (above) as a member of the Federal Trade Commission is protested by Senator Harry F. Byrd, head man of Virginia's state-conscious Democratic organization, on grounds that Hutchinson's nomination "is political and made for a definite and obvious political purpose." Hutchinson, a Richmond, Va., attorney, opposed Byrd in the 1946 primary. Byrd protest is supported by Senator A. Willis Robertson, Virginia Democrat. (International)

D.V.B. Program At Pulaski Methodist

Pupils of the Daily Vacation Bible school of Pulaski community will present a program this evening at 7:30 o'clock in Pulaski Methodist church. Work accomplished during the ten days of classes will be demonstrated.
"God's Mail Bag" was the school's theme, each student receiving every day a letter from a mock post office, containing instructions for the day, memory work and attendance record. Activities include worship, recreation, memory work, studying "The Life of Christ," films and handwork.
After the evening's program, lunch will be served in the basement of the church, where there will be a display of handwork. Mrs. Richard Clark is directing the program. The teachers have done an outstanding piece of work.

HOLLYWOOD—If Robert Mitchum's brother John makes good in the movies it won't be because he traded on his more famous relative's name. The young actor adopted the name of John Mallory. He has had featured roles in several films.

Regatta Course Ready For Race

Expect 75,000 For Marietta Classic

By JOHN BARRINGTON
(International News Service Staff Writer)
MARIETTA, O., June 16.—A dyed-in-the-wool crew racing man might almost deplore the conditions under which tomorrow's 48th Annual Intercollegiate Rowing Regatta will be contested on the Ohio river at Marietta.

The three-mile race will take place on a course that has been heretofore sealed. Wickets have been raised in flood-control dams to reduce the river to "pool stage" and make it nearly as placid as a mill pond.

Expect 75,000
And not even the drone of airplanes overhead will distract the 32 crews rowing in varsity, junior varsity and freshman events. The CAA has decreed that only a select few press photographers can view the race from above.

For all the precautions, the crews will have less privacy than if in the traditional gold fish bowl. An estimated 75,000 persons are expected to flock into picturesque Marietta for the regatta.

In anticipation of the influx, the historic 162-year-old town, seat of the first government in the northwest territory, has assumed a carnival aspect.

Ray Schalk Back

As Bison Manager

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 16.—(INS)—Ray Schalk came back today after a 13-year absence to manage the Buffalo Bisons, 1949 International league pennant-winners who now lie 13 games back of the top.

In a surprise announcement last night, Bison Pilot Frank Skiff was fired as manager of the club, although he will remain as a supervisor of farm clubs for the parent Philadelphia Athletics.

Schalk all-time old-time major league great, managed the Bisons from 1932 through 1937.

Kell Regains Second Place In Balloting For All-Star Team

CHICAGO, June 16.—(INS)—George Kell, Detroit third baseman and 1949 American league batting champion, climbed back into second place today in the race for top individual honors in the national all-star baseball poll. Kell, with 9,986 votes, trails Stan Musial, St. Louis Cardinals first baseman-outfielder, who leads with 10,653.

Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn second baseman, slipped to third position with 9,854 votes but widened his lead over the Cardinals' Red Schoendienst for the infield spot to more than 2,000 votes.

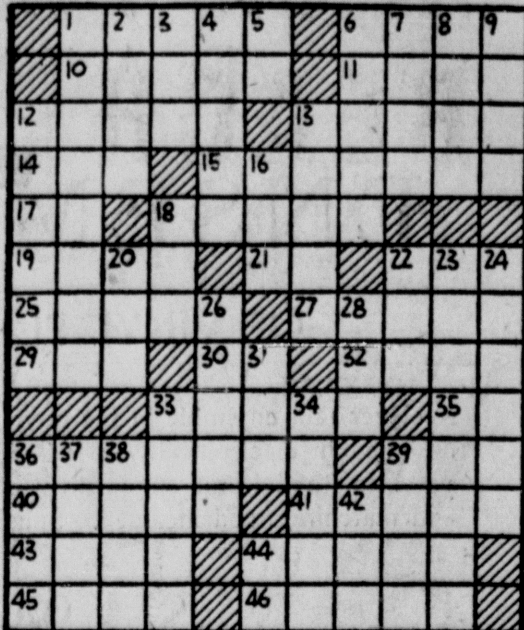

A total of 32,739 ballots have been counted in the poll, which continues until midnight July 1. The voting will determine starting lineups for the 17th annual all-star game in Chicago's Comiskey park July 11.

Philly Warriors Sign Up Arizin

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—(INS)—Paul Arizin, All-American center from Villanova college, today signed a contract to play for the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Association. It was reported the 6-foot 4-inch pivotman will receive from $9,000 to $11,000 a year. Arizin had one year remaining at Villanova.

Betty Haas Is Race Winner

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., June 16.—(INS)—Betty Haas, of Scarsdale, N. Y., won the 1,500-mile International "Powder Puff Derby" air race from Montreal, Canada, to West Palm Beach today when she became the first of 13 contestants to land in the Florida City.

Miss Haas, who was contestant number 13 in the race, landed shortly after 11:30 a. m. (EST) at Palm Beach International Airport.

She was flying a 1948 model Ryan Navion.

Officials of the International Race for Women Pilots said time handicaps for the flyers were imposed before the contestants left Montreal, thus making the first pilot to reach West Palm Beach the winner.

Miss Haas is a flight instructor with 1,400 hours flying time to her credit.

Last year's winner of the race, Peggy Lennox, of Hollywood, Fla., reported today from Maxton, N. C., that she expects to reach West Palm Beach about 3 p. m.

To Appoint New Philippine Envoy To U.S. In July

MANILA, June 16.—(INS)—The Manila Daily Mirror reported today that a new Philippine ambassador to the U. S. will be appointed July 1st to replace the present envoy, Joaquin Elizalde.

The paper quoted an authoritative government source as saying Jose Yulo, a prominent Manila political leader, will be named to the Washington post.

The paper said the ambassadorial job will be consolidated with the chairmanship of the Philippine delegation to the United Nations after Gen. Carlos P. Romulo's presidency of the U. N. General Assembly expires in September. Romulo is also the Philippine Foreign Secretary.

Find Deserter After Seven Years

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—(INS)—A 36-year-old father of two, who "couldn't stand army chow," was turned over to military authorities Friday by the FBI, charged with deserting in 1943.

Arthur Cornelius, Jr., special agent in charge of the FBI Philadelphia office, identified the suspect as Paul W. Coverdale, 36, of North Philadelphia.

The FBI agent quoted the suspect as explaining that he deserted because he was "afraid of guns and couldn't stand army chow."

Coverdale was inducted into the army as Jasper, Ind., on April 23, 1943, and deserted in September of that year while stationed at Camp Patrick Henry, Va., Cornelius said.

Cardinals Open Important Series With Brooklyn Dodgers Tonight

Senators Trounce Vandergrift In Series Opener 11-4

Rossman Fans 11 Batters; Mates Play Errorless Ball

The strong right-arm of Bernie Rossman, the Chicago boy, plus errorless ball by his mates, gave the New Castle Senators a 11 to 4 win, over the Vandergrift Pioneers, in the opening of a three-game series at Flaherty Memorial Field last night. Rossman had 11 strikeouts.

Erie by edging Johnstown 6 to 5 remains in the breathing down-the-Senators-neck spot, one game in arrears. Butler remains a game and a half out by downing Niagara Falls 9-5, while Oil City in fourth place absorbed a real shellacking at Youngstown 21 to 2.

Wagner Pitches Tonight
Their two-game losing streak to the Oilers broken, the Senators will attempt to make it two wins in a row, by sending their veteran hurler Frank Wagner to the mound tonight, to try for his fourth win of the 1950 campaign against one defeat.

Manager Don Hasenmayer of the "Vandies" may counter with Norm Girard, a right hander also, he stated Thursday evening. Saturday night has been designated as "Father's Night" with special happenings for fathers and a gift for every man.

It was "ladies night" last night and over 600 fans turned out. This is not quite enough support for a first place ball club. The park should be well filled for the second game of the series tonight.

Rossman in winning his fourth victory against two defeats, was master all the way, and although touched for 10 hits and walking six, was never in serious trouble, as he fanned 11 batters, and set what may be a modern Mid-Atlantic league strikeout record by whiffing the Vandergrift leadoff man, Fred Burdett, in all of his five appearances at the plate.

Rossman also took care of 14 home-runners Harvey Rupp, the mastodon Vandergrift right fielder, by fanning him the first two times up. Rupp, however, in his final two times at the plate hit two doubles. Jensen led the visitors at bat with three hits, a double and two singles.

Johnny Vizzini, the rookie first sacker of the Senators, continues to sparkle at the plate and field, having two for five last night, a single and double. Vizzini had the only extra-base sock the locals could get off of a trio of Vandergrift hurlers—Lawson, Tracey and Christensen.

The Senators showed over three markers in the first inning on two hits and two walks, and added six more runs in the fourth on three hits, four walks and an error, as 11 men went to bat. Tracey relieved Lawson, the Vandies starter, in the fourth inning uprising, giving way to Christensen in the eighth inning. Lawson was the loser.

The Vandies didn't fare too well in the field last night, being charged with six errors that hurt. The

HERE'S HOMER PRENTISS AND HIS BIG BROWN TROUT

ONE OF THE BIGGEST BROWN TROUT caught in a Lawrence county trout stream was taken by Homer Prentiss, 603 Harbor street, at 6 a. m. several mornings ago from the Big Run. The fish measured 19½ inches and is said to have weighed about three pounds. The "Brownie" passed up a spinner to take a worm. Prentiss used a two pound test leader.

Joseph E. Annarella of Cameron avenue played with the Ithaca college varsity LaCrosse team which won two and lost three games. It was the second season of intercollegiate competition for the Bombers. Annarella was enrolled in the School of Health and Physical Education. Indianapolis race winner, Johnny Parsons will race at Reading, Sunday.

Herman Steinbrink, fire chief, is fond of "Hard Top" racing. He journeys to Canfield whenever possible, and already has his pasteborder for the Jake LaMotta vs. Rocky Graziano middleweight championship fight in New York City. Dog area is open for training at the Harbor, LCA officials report.

A well known who dabbles with pasteboards and dice, says "the man who 'cries' always has 'it', while the 'good fellow', usually needs 'it'." Joe Rick has several of trotters and pacers at Painesville track where a harness race program is under way.

Carl Gaston, Cascade Park policeman, reports that the thousands of canaries which annually fly into the park, failed to arrive this season. Ted Castele, a park concessionaire, once served as sparring mate to Eddie Wygant, featherweight. He was known to gym colleagues, as "The Spider".

Jewish War Veterans hope the State commission assigns Izzy Moide, one of the larger referees to third man the grappling carnival here, June 20. His antics at Butler were as amusing as those of the Grunt and Groaners. The Indian, Don Eagle, opposes Gypsy Joe, in the feature match of three bouts.

One fisherman who gets his share of trout annually, is "Shorty" Kneram of Harlansburg. Paris Cangey was one of the hardest punchers the lightweight division contained in his palmy day. Construction of pens at McGarry's and Stoner's farms, means better bird hunting.

There are a few quail in Lawrence county and the only hope of their survival is for hunters to keep their fingers off triggers when they see 'em. There will be a trapshoot, Sunday afternoon, at the Lawrence County Sportsman's farm near the Harbor. Shooting stops at 6 o'clock.

Indians, Braves Climbing In Their Respective Leagues

By CHARLES EINHSTEIN
(International News Service Sports Writer)
New York, June 16—Under cover of gaudier doings, such as Chicago Bill Pierce's one-hit shutout of the New York Yankees and tonight's opening of another vital Dodger-Cardinal series, two teams moved stealthily up the big league ladders today like Indians—which they are.

The Cleveland Indians of the American League and the Boston Braves of the National, each making their move from the unnoticed environs of fourth place, were swinging their war clubs at a pace which marked the wary back to 1948, when it was a Cleveland-Boston world series.

Indians Top Sox
The Indians banged the big bad Boston Red Sox 3 to 1 yesterday for their second straight over Joe McCarthy's men. Pitcher Bob Lemon, scoring his eighth success of the season, rapped a home run, and Al Rosen bopped one with a man on—his 17th—to insure the victory.

The Braves, hurrying at an even faster clip, swept their series with Cincinnati's bottomless Reds by punching the Rhinelanders two times, 5 to 3 in the first game and 6 to 5 in the ten-inning nightcap.

Tigers Win
The day was further marked for the fact that the Detroit Tigers got out with some daylight against the American League. Red Rolfe's sharpies, who open an important sea against the Red Sox tonight, cuffed Philadelphia's Athletics, 7 to 3.

The second-place Yanks, meanwhile, were losing their third straight decision to the young Chicago firm of Cain, Wight and Pierce. The 23-year-old, Pierce hurt the most. Where Bob Cain had stopped the Bombers Tuesday and Bill Wight yesterday, Pierce subdued the vaunted Stengel bats, 5 to 0 on just one hit—Bill Johnson's fifth-inning single.

Yanks Get Help
The Yanks knew what they were doing when they sought that pitching help from St. Louis—help which came to them just before the midnight trading deadline.

They got pitchers Joe Ostrowski, Tom Ferrick and Sid Schacht from the Browns plus infielder Leo Thomas, for infielder George Stinnett, outfielder Jim Delsing and pitchers Duane Pillette and Don Johnson.

Cards vs. Dodgers
The Browns, meanwhile, were belting Washington, 16 to 9 in a night game. All National League games save the Cincinnati-Boston doubleheader were curtailed by rain yesterday, which leaves the St. Louis Cardinals three and a half games up on Brooklyn Dodgers going into the start of their series at Brooklyn tonight.
